

Hailing from the Northwest Corner of Connecticut, Mad River Crossing plays nostalgic classics with a bluegrass twist. From old time gospel to folk classics, this group will bring you back to the good ol' days.

Cindy Rines, Debbie Storrs and Katie Serafini are a powerhouse of talent and flowing vocal harmony. Gary Storrs' plunging bass lines hold down the rhythm section as he flawlessly executes his craft, while Brad DuBow lends streaming leads on dobro and guitar.

Mad River Crossing has performed extensively in the northwest corner of Connecticut and Massachusetts, on the coffeehouse circuit, as well as being the opening act at the Hartland Hollow Blue Grass Festival. They have graced the stages at the Riverton Fair, Riverton Music Festival, Hartland Bluegrass Festival, Winsted Summer Concerts on the Green and Torrington's Coe Park Concert Series.
